Note: To avoid the risk of a loss package or unexpected costs, please return the products in a firm package with sufficient postage including a track and trace code (and if necessary with customs forms) and a return address on the package. The risk of damage and / or loss of products rests on the costumer until the delivery at the return address of Goudkat. For more information please visit the PostNL website (The Netherlands) or the nearest post office in your country. The amount of the returned goods will be credited within 14 days of receipt.

Return Policy

- Within 14 days of purchase (delivery date is date of purchase).
- Enclose the copie of the completed return form (and if necessary with customs forms)
- Goudkat may charge you for the repair if you have been responsible for the damage to the product.
- The article is, whenever reasonably possible, still in the original product packaging.

More information about returns can be found on the website www.goudkat.com
