General terms and conditions of NVR Service & Advice, Trade name Elektroparts

If you place an order with Elektro Parts (www.elektroparts.nl) you agree to the following (delivery) conditions.

Elektroparts sells new and used electrical components to businesses in Europe.

Assortment

The electrical components offered by Elektro Parts are new or used.

The used components have been dismantled from installations that have stopped working, so we assume that they are in order. In the unlikely event that they do not work, we will refund the invoice amount and any return shipping costs to you. The used components may contain traces of use.

The new components offered by Elektro Parts often come from warehouse clearances or bankruptcy. The original packaging is no longer always present, these components may contain warehouse traces.

We supply all components as shown in the photo(s) and described in the article description. We do not supply data sheets, HS codes or weights of the items we sell.

Order confirmation

As soon as you place an order with Elektroparts you will receive an order confirmation by email. On the order confirmation you will find an overview of the ordered articles and the costs thereof, including shipping costs and possibly VAT.

The VAT regulation

- If you use a shipping address in a country that falls outside the EU regulations, you do not owe VAT.
- If you use a shipping address outside the Netherlands but within a country to which the EU regulations apply and you state your VAT number, you do not owe VAT to us, but you must pay it in your own country as VAT on import.
- If you use a shipping address outside the Netherlands but within a country to which the EU regulations apply and you have not entered a VAT number, the EU VAT unisystem applies to us. We must then apply the VAT rate of your country. These VAT amounts received by us go via the Dutch tax authorities to the tax authorities of your country.
- If you use a shipping address in the Netherlands, we will calculate the Dutch VAT. Companies with a Dutch VAT number can deduct the paid VAT amount from their VAT return.

Packaging

When you place an order with Elektroparts, you are not only purchasing the article, but also the article packaging and the transport packaging. You are responsible for environmentally friendly processing or reuse of these packaging. The resulting costs are for your account.

Payment

You can pay at Elektro Parts using one of our payment options.

You can also transfer the invoice amount in advance to account: IBAN: NL 59 SNSB 0902833677 SWIFT/BIC: SNSBNL2A in the name of NVR Service & Advies Ridderkerk Nederland.

As soon as the total amount of your order has been received, your order will be sent. You will receive an email message when your order has been sent.

Shipping - Collection

All orders are sent by us, collection is not possible.

Elektro Parts is an online shop, we do NOT have a showroom and you cannot view any items with us.
