The world's coolest bottle opener

Plopr.

You hear a loud 'Plop' and moments later the cork hits the ceiling. Your thoughts run to a bottle of champagne, but when you turn around you see that someone opened a bottle of beer! How did that happen? Everybody in the room wants to know how a bottle of beer can make such a great sound!

Do you want to stand out?

The Plopr draws attention: it has a sleek design, is made from high-quality stainless steel, it has an ergonomic handle and comes in a luxurious gift box.

The Plopr opens every bottle in a fun way: with a loud Plop. The start of every event!

Get the attention!

This new way of opening bottles is something that draws in all the attention, has to be seen by everybody and gets people excited! This makes the Plopr a perfect business gift. Give it to a long-time business connection or to someone who loves a specialty/ craft beer.

The Plopr can be personalised with a laser engraving, this way your logo will never fade. We can engrave your logo, slogan or image on the Plopr.

Start designing with our outline drawings (available on request) or ask the Plopr team to create a visual. Share your wishes and we will create a digital visual of your personalised Plopr!

Once you plopr, you can't stop!
